

Technical Meeting

Preservation of textile wall hangings

14th-15th November 2022

The Amalienborg Museum, Christian VIII's Palace, Royal Danish Collection, Denmark

Practical Information

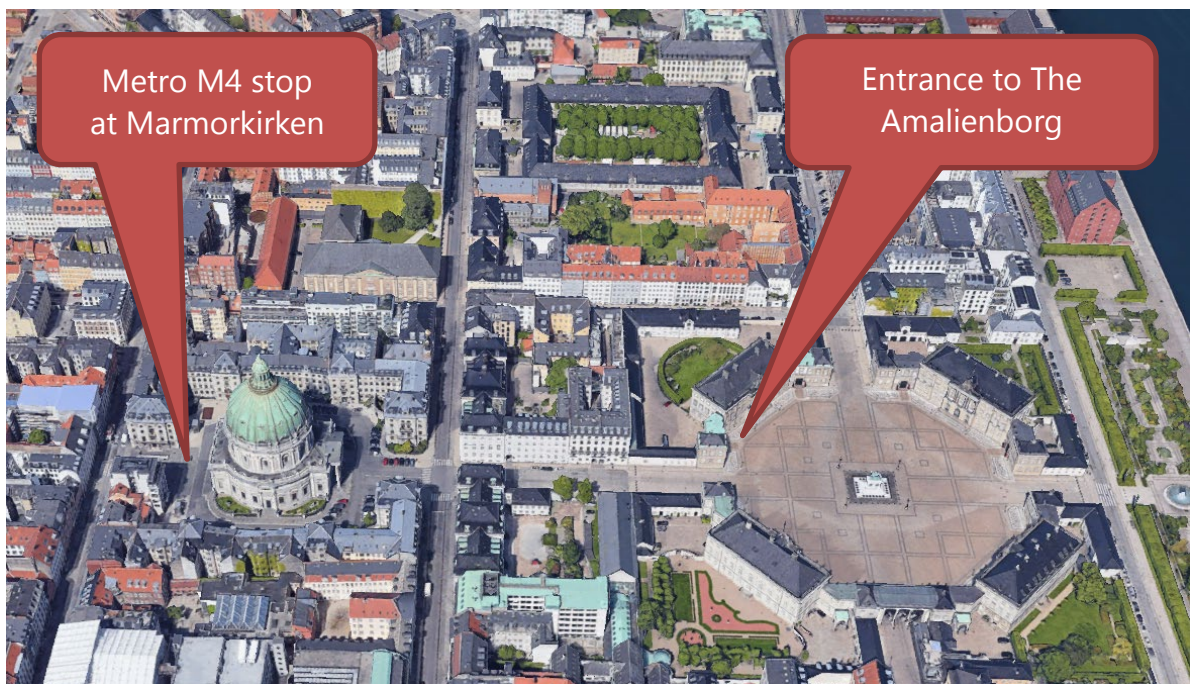

Access to The Amalienborg Museum

How to come to The Amalienborg Museum

From Kastrup Airport/by train

- Metro M2 (Direction Vanløse St.), stop at Kongens Nytorv St. → 15 min. walk
- Metro M2 (Direction Vanløse St.), stop at Kongens Nytorv St. → Metro M4 (Direction Orientkaj), stop at Marmorkirken → 5 min. walk

Metro M2 is the yellow line and Metro M4 is the blue line.

Meeting point

The meeting point is at The Amalienborg Museum, Christian VIII's Palace. The entrance is in the gate closest to Frederiksgade. The statue of Frederik V, in the middle of the castle square, shows you the way. He is pointing at the museum entrance.

How to find...

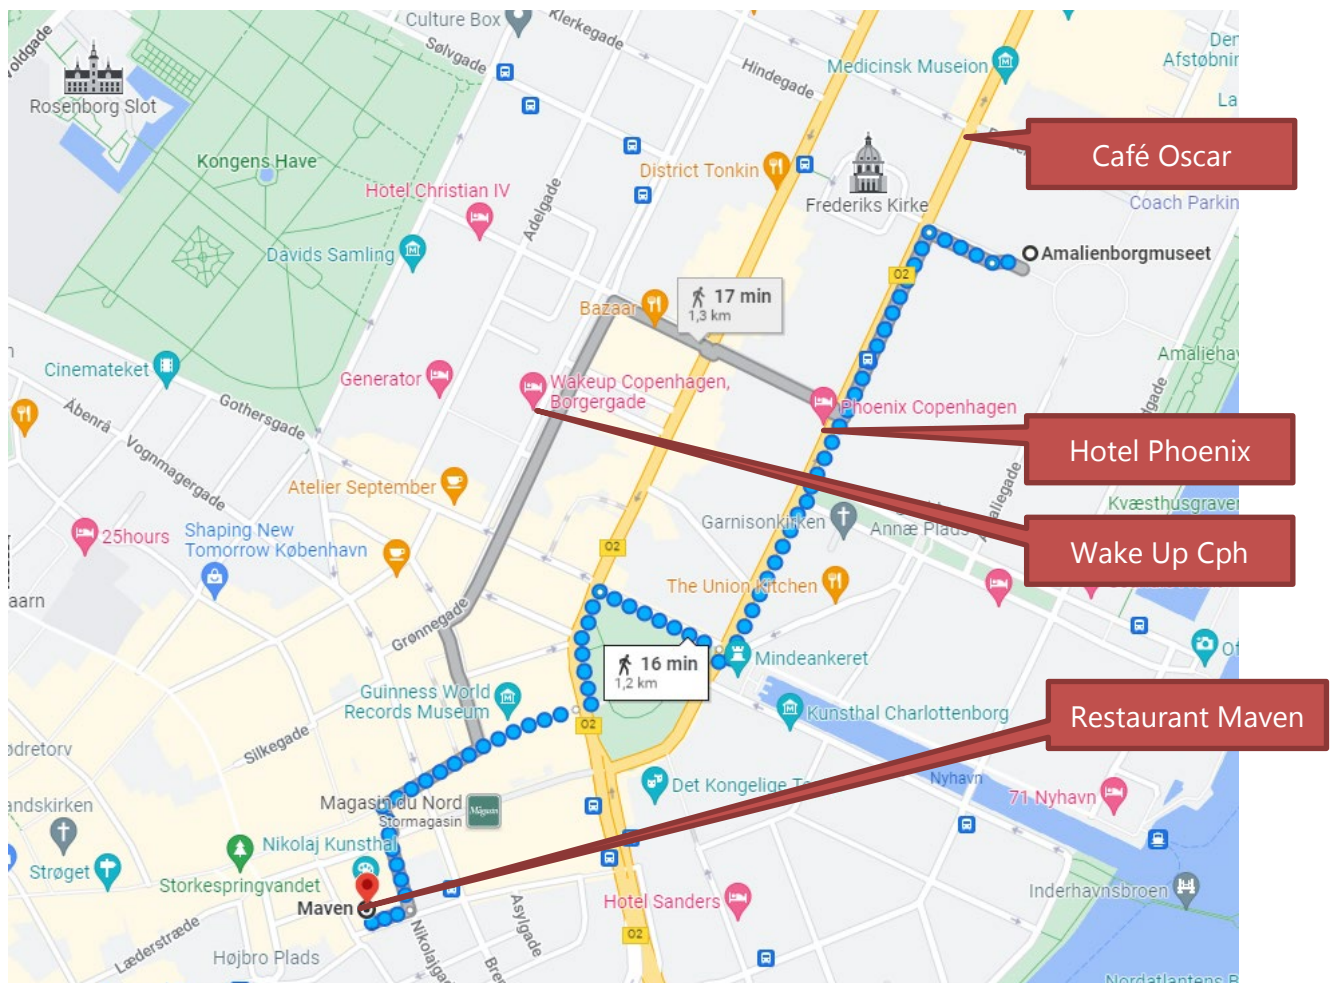

Address and link to Restaurants

Lunch at Café Oscar, Bredgade 58, Copenhagen

Link to Café Oscar: <https://www.cafeoscar.dk/>

Dinner at Restaurant Maven, Nikolaj Plads 10, Copenhagen

Link to Restaurant Maven: <https://maven.dk/en/maven-english/>

Lunch at Raadvad Kro, Svenskevej 52, kongens Lyngby

Link to Raadvad Kro: <http://raadvadkro.dk/>

No problem to find, we will take you there by bus.

Additional information

Luggage

Luggage can be stored at the Amalienborg Museum during the daytime.
Participants could also take luggage in the bus on Tuesday.

Dress code

Please note that due to energy restrictions, our guests are advised to bring warm clothes, since the temperature in the museum will be limited to 19°C.

Contact

Network of European Royal Residences

Elena Alliaudi / H el ene Legrand

+33 (0)6 78 68 24 65

+33 (0)6 31 17 89 90

elena.alliaudi@chateauversailles.fr

helene.legrand@chateauversailles.fr

The Royal Danish Collection

Jette S onderskov Vesterdal

+45 5196 5930

jv@kosa.dk